

PRESS RELEASE

KAMS GLOBAL ARABIA

KAMS Global Appoints former Chairman of PIF Helicopter Company (THC) & Former CEO of GDC Middle East, Fawaz Mohammed AlSharabi as Chairman of the Board.

Visionary Leader with 25+ Years in Aerospace, Defense and Strategic Innovation

Riyadh, Saudi Arabia – 01 September, 2025 – KAMS Global, the Kingdom's premier aviation consultancy facilitating strategic technology and knowledge transfer initiatives across Saudi Arabia's aerospace sector, recently announced the appointment of Fawaz Mohammed AlSharabi as Chairman of the Board of Directors. Mr. AlSharabi is a distinguished veteran of Saudi Arabia's aerospace and defense industry with a preeminent track record of leading comprehensive capability building programs in alignment with the Kingdom's National Aviation Strategy and Vision 2030.

His exceptional career includes serving as CEO of GDC Middle East, a PIF-company for localizing aerospace and defense industries, where he exceeded financial and strategic KPIs while contributing to the development of the Royal Saudi Air Force's engineering capabilities. He was also appointed by PIF to lead the launch of The Helicopter Company, the Kingdom's first aerial mobility services provider.

Most recently, as Managing Director of Aviation Australia College (2021-2023), Mr. AlSharabi spearheaded the development of Saudi talent in aviation technical fields. His corporate governance expertise was demonstrated as Chairman of Allied Cooperative Insurance Group (ACIG), a publicly traded Tadawul company (2019-2022).

At Al Salam Aircraft Company, Saudi Arabia's largest economic offset joint venture at the time, he led pioneering initiatives including the local manufacturing of F-15SA aircraft components and major partnerships with Boeing, Airbus, and BAE Systems. He currently serves as Chairman and Founder of The 3F Company, investing in early-stage ventures and breakthrough technologies.

Mr. AlSharabi has served as a trusted government advisor on aerospace strategy and international defense contracting, including U.S. FMS and UK MOD frameworks. He holds a Bachelor's degree in Industrial Engineering from King Saud University and executive education credentials from INSEAD, Harvard Business School, University of North Carolina, and Boeing Leadership Center. In 2022, he received Global Business Outlook's Emerging Leader in Corporate Transformation award for his work with Aviation Australia Riyadh College.

Commenting on the appointment, Moazz Khanai, Managing Director of KAMS Global, said, "Fawaz's unique ability to bridge government vision with private sector execution makes him the ideal leader to advance our mission of facilitating transformative partnerships to deliver upon the Kingdom's ambitious localization goals,"

"I am honored to lead KAMS Global during this transformative era as the Kingdom establishes itself as a global aerospace hub," said Mr. AlSharabi. "Vision 2030's ambitious targets for aviation sector growth, coupled with substantial government investment and regulatory reforms, create exceptional opportunities for international partners to establish strategic footholds in the region while contributing meaningfully to Saudi Arabia's industrial diversification and technological sovereignty."

About KAMS Global

KAMS Global is a leading aviation consultancy specializing in services that support Saudi Arabia's National Aviation Strategy. Its expertise spans asset and resource management, MRO and technical services, and advisory support for regulatory, licensing, and certification projects. KAMS Global has a proven track record of investing in mission-critical projects and partnerships to develop the talent, technology, and infrastructure essential for building a world-class, integrated aviation ecosystem.

Moaaz Khanani.
Managing Partner KAMS Global

Fawaz Mohammed AlSharabi
Chairman of the Board KAMS Global

For Media Enquiries:

Moaaz Khanani

+966 54 834 7347

info@kamsglobal.com.

www.kamsglobal.com